

Name: _____

Period: _____

SCIENTIFIC REVOLUTION

A way of thinking about the natural world based on careful observation and a willingness to question accepted beliefs.

Use pages 382-387 in your book.

Identify the contributions to science made by each of the following individuals.

1. Nicholas Copernicus: _____

2. Johannes Kepler: _____

3. Galileo Galilei:
a. _____
b. _____
c. _____

4. Andreas Vesalius: _____

5. William Harvey: _____

The following scientists are not located in your books. However, it is important that you log onto the web and find out their contributions as well because they will be found on your test. Link for Questions 6-10 can be found on my web page under WEB LESSONS.

6. Zacharias Janssen: _____

7. Anton van Leeuwenhoek: _____

8. Gabriel Fahrenheit: _____

9. Anders Celsius: _____

10. Evangelista Torricelli: _____

Name Class Date

Identifying Cause and Effect Use the web diagram below to show what factors led to the Scientific Revolution and what contribution each of the major scientists made.

